Pertinent Paragraphs

And now — the time has come — the walrus said — to speak of many things — of shoes —and ships — and sealing wax of cabbages and kings — and so — looking down Imperial avenue — why not an early and persistant campaign to widen — from city limits east — should be a 4-laner — at least three lane highway to connection with Broadway, near Catholic church. And a sign reading: "You are now entering Lemon Grove,, — on the edge of town — not almost in the center of the city! Got other ideas on signs too — will disclose later.

Notice on page two the short, short story. We'd like some opinions on it. Do you like it—shall we continue it or throw it out? We, like anyone else in public life who hopes to stay in it, are guided by your opinions. More features are due in next week.

Following a long time custom of not mentioning names in affairs that might prove embarrassing — we're sorry but are unable to identify the local jeweler and local furniture man that participated in a football game on our city streets the past week. The other boys were ten to twelve years of age.

Dick Caldwell's used cars out on Imperial avenue while his lot is being graded and leveled. New rumors starting to the effect that a bank is being made ready for on the same location. Suits us—that wouldn't be too far to dig a tunnel to!

We never thought it'd come to this. Way back when the gals started wearing Levis, we recall some of the fellows putting on a skirt now and then — maybe even a lipstick. But retaliation was the explanation. And now, believe us, without seeing it, we would doubt this too, with some of the teenage guys around town sporting permanent waves . . . oh no.

Monterey Heights — we might call it the magic section of Lemon Grove — new, attractive homes, well kept lawns—flowers —and home-loving, progressive folks, with a humdinger of a civic organization serving the community interests — and — bless them – reading the Review — even as you are doing now.

Bus service is a great boon to this district — as well as to all of Lemon Grove — and a bouquet to courageous and determined Eslinger and Worthington, operators of the Campo bus lines to which great credit is due for bringing us this improved service. Shortest line to downtown — down Broadway.

Columbus day arrived and departed. Reminds us of a couple of other holidays. Observed only by banks, and we suppose city, county and state and federal employees. Sure, we're jealous, but helping to pay them for those days also don't help. Armistice day — there's a dilly. Sure, we revere the memory of those who thought they were dying to make the world safe for democracy. But we'll give you three to one if their spirits could speak today, more could be gained from their message in ten seconds than years of bickering around the United Nations' tables. Armistice day — well it has the proper name — anyhow!

Everyone Invited to Come to Community Picnic October 24

One of the biggest events in Lemon Grove History will take place at Eucalyptus Park Sunday October 24, at noon in the form of a Community Picnic.

This picnic is sponsored by the Business Men's Club, the Business Women's League and the Lions Club. All residents of the Lemon Grove School District and their families and friends are invited.

There is no admission charge but everyone is expected to bring his own lunch, basket-style. Coffee for the adults and soda pop for the children will be served free. Games galore are planned including a tug of war and many others in which everyone will have an opportunity to participate.

Committees from all three organizations have been appointed and are busy planning numerous events for your pleasure. Everyone is invited to make a date and bring the family. This affair may well be the forerunner of many other such events in the future.

Highlighting the afternoon of games and sport will be a baseball game between the Business Men's Club and the Lions. A. E. Donnelly, captain of the Business Men's team, has an array of players with which he expects an easy victory. However, Mr. Winans, captain of the Lions, says his team is primed and can't lose. A hotly contested game should result.

Committees include Mrs. Burt Snyder and Mrs. Forrest Baxter of the Business Women's League; J. Higgins, A. Evringham and L. McGee of the Business Men's Club, and J. Ammons and C. L. Holcum of the Lions Club.

Monterey Heights Civic Group Continue Gains

Mr. Ferris White, vice chairman of the Monterey Heights Civic Organization, and W. W. James, chairman of streets and roads, are getting results. Recently accomplished was some much-needed repair work of pavements in the Heights home area.

The white line marker for the Glencoe road has been layed as far as Canton Drive. Night drivers to and from the Heights will appreciate this aid to safe driving.

The project for Englewood Drive which has been previously approved, should be completed soon.

These aids for the safety and convenience of so many citizens demonstrates the kind of work the Organization is doing, and should encourage every home owner to become a member to lend his help and suggestions for more development and maintenance.

The Civic Organization is behind the Community Chest Drive. Workers are already in the field. Ladies, if you would like to contribute independently of the amount your husband gives at work you can do it. If you forego two ice cream sodas a month you could pledge with that money $6 a year to the Red Feather and pay it monthly or quarterly. Or you could skip that rich dessert for the family table just once a month to pledge a like amount. Or go to one less movie a month. This amount would pay for three days Visiting Nurse care or three days of child care. If you failed to pledge when the worker called at your door you can still contact her anytime in October to make that independent pledge.

BOARD MEETING FOR BUSINESS WOMEN'S LEAGUE

The Business Women's League will have a Board Meeting (not a bored meeting) Thursday evening beginning with a pot luck dinner at 7:00 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert Beers at 2459 Bonita Street.

GROUNDS GRADED LANDSCAPING TO START

The men parishioners of St. John of the Cross Church have graded the grounds surrounding the new parochial school and convent and plan to begin landscaping next week. They will plant a lawn and shrubbery.

Proposed Ys Mens Club to Shoot for Swimming Pool

Wednesday evening the third meeting of the proposed Y's Men's Club was held at the Congregational Church. The meeting was preceeded by a dinner prepared and served by the House Committee.

Reports were made by the various committees and discussion followed which resulted in plans for a monthly swimming party for teen-agers, one for younger children, volley-ball instructions and games weekly, possible folk-dancing and square dancing instructions, regular weekly Hi-Y meetings, and last but not least, all members present were hearty in their accord to boost plans for a swimming pool for Lemon Grove.

This last mentioned item gathered momentum as enthusiastic support came from member after member. As the group is not yet chartered, no official action was taken.

The Y's Men are a group of men interested in boy's work, training for leadership in boy's organizations and world fellowship. It is a service club and much fine work has been done by these groups in other communities in combatting delinquency, keeping boys busy with interesting and healthful activity and developing useful future citizens.

Hi-Y Club Was Formed Here

The second meeting of the Lemon Grove Hi-Y was held last Monday, October 11, at the Congregational Church. The club which consists of fourteen charter members from Lemon Grove, was formed October 4, under the able leadership of C. F. Moeser.

Officers elected were: president, Harold Brand; vice president, Donald Martin; secretary, John Jensen; treasurer, Robert Crouch and historian, Ivan Shaw.

BE SURE TO VOTE IN SCHOOL ELECTION FRI.

Friday, October 22, between the hours of 7:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. voters in the Lemon Grove School District will go to the school to vote on the School End Election in the amount of $85,000.

For the past two weeks this paper has carried articles outlining the need for this money. The primary purpose will be to purchase classroom, playground and recreational equipment.

Always of vital interest to property owners is the increased tax demand that would result with the passage of each bond election. It would not increase the individual tax burden because this bond would be carried by new property added to the tax rolls this year. The assessed valuation of the Lemon Grove School District for the year 1947-1948 was $2,866,090.00. The assessed valuation for 1948-1949 is $4,119,885.00. This makes it possible to vote this bond issue without increasing the tax burden on the individual property owner. A school district may bond itself up to 5 percent of its assessed valuation.

On January 1, 1948 an application for $1,000,000. was submitted to the State Department outlining the needs of the Lemon Grove School District. The accuracy of this application was certified by the State Department of Education. On the strength of this request $270,000 was allocated for the construction of the Vista La Mesa and Monterey Heights School. However, the ever-increasing enrollment and the lack of school housing make it crystal clear that in addition to any future allocations from the State, this school district will have to make he maximum effort locally — namely, to bond itself to the legal limit in order to meet present and future building needs.

McKinnon Spoke to Business Clubs

Clinton D. McKinnon, Democratic Candidate for Congress, spoke Tuesday to a combined meeting of the Business Men's Association and the Business Women's League at the La Mesa Country Club.

Luncheon was enjoyed by the group, after which McKinnon addressed the gathering with a speech in which he stressed the need for protecting the small business man in order to perpetuate the American way of life.

The candidate pointed out that our present inflation could best be cured by either bringing the purchasing power of the nation down to the level of production or increasing production to equal our purchasing power. He said he favored the latter course.

McKinnon also said that he believed that price and wage controls were lifted too soon after the war and should have been gradually eliminated as production rose to meet demand.

Mr. McKinnon started the San Diego Journal in 1944 and created a successful newspaper under adverse conditions.

Announcements were made at the meeting regarding the big Community Picnic being held October 24; the baked ham dinner and bazaar given by the Vista La Mesa Women's Club on Saturday of this week at the Masonic Temple in La Mesa; and the dinner and meeting at Julian, Tuesday evening next, of the County Planning Commission.

School Band to be Given Progressive Dinner by PTA Wednesday Eve.

The P. T. A. is giving a progressive dinner for the Lemon Grove School Band Wednesday evening, October 20. They will play in each section of the school district, and have one course of their dinner in that locality. Then they will progress to another area in the district, play again, and eat another course of their dinner.

They will play in Lemon Grove business district, Monterey Heights, American Homes and Vista La Mesa.

The purpose of the trip will be to remind parents of their obligation to vote in the Lemon Grove School Bond Election Friday, October 22. School buses will take the band to the various communities.

School Conference Was Attended by Local Representatives

The Camp Seeley Conference held recently was attended by Mrs. Nancy Tuthill and Miss Levancha Bauman of the Lemon Grove School.

Camp Seeley, which is located in the San Bernardino Mountains about five miles from Lake Arrowhead, was the scene of a conference of 344 teachers and administrators belonging to the Southern Section of the California Teachers Association.

General sessions and panel sessions were held for the study and discussion of many problems, such as the advantages and need for closer working together and consolidation of the thinking and planning of school and community. When parents and teachers work and plan together economy and efficiency are more apt to be achieved.

One of the panels was composed of a school trustee representing the taxpayer, an administrator, a Parent-Teacher Association president and a school teacher. The chairman of this group was Dr. Lionel De Silva, Executive Secretary of California Teachers Association, Southern Section.

An awareness of what is being done for school and community betterment was the theme of the conference.

Monterey Hts. School Plans Approved

The Lemon Grove Board of Education had their regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening in the school office.

Mr. Ray Fellows was present to go over the insurance program in detail with the board, assuring them they had adequate coverage in all departments.

A large part of the evening was spent in going over the plans for the new Monterey Heights school building. These were approved and will be sent on now for State approval. Mr. A. B. Lewis, of Sam Hammil's office presented the plans which are similar in architecture to the new class rooms on Golden Avenue. There will be a kindergarten, six classrooms and an administrative building, with a central heating plant, and arranged to conform to the rolling surface of the site.

There has been an increase of 200 in the enrollment over last year's attendance, the total now standing at 1260.

The board approved a testing program in reading and achievment tests, the results of which will determine the student's grouping, and whether remedial teaching or diagnostic understanding is indicated.

Superintendent Byron Netzley reported on his attendance at the State Convention in Long Beach las week. One of the highlights of the convention was a display of models of new school buildings showing cross sections of classrooms, their lighting, etc.

The board also approved an allowance of $15. for each kindergarten and first grade teacher for purchase of books, games, toys and other equipment for the use of these small children.

Written by Ethelwyn Dodson and Frances Reis, Extension Specialists in Clothing, this 24 page booklet, with 30 photographs, describes and illustrates a simplified method of coat making. It has been written in answer to repeated requests from the many homemakers who want help in tailoring satisfactory wool coats and suits for themselves and families.

NEW STATION

Residents in the vicinity of Massachusetts and Broadway, have been watching workmen stir the ground and grade the northwest corner there many times during the past three and a half years. Now the digging machines are at work and some huge tanks are lying about the premises.

"The Old Grapevine" has it that a farmer from Minnesota, whose only known name seems to be "Bill" is putting in the world's largest filling station.

There will be 28 pumps installed, and the tanks will not be burried, but will be arranged for gravity flow.

The station will handle all grades of gasoline, distillate, and all other products usually sold in a modern filling station. This will make the third station on these corners at Massachusetts and Broadway.

START CHILDREN EARLY IN MUSIC

You cannot start the musical education of your child too early in life. A lover of music has a rich heritage. His life is never lonely because in music he finds solace, comfort and ease.

Now-a-days the radio provides all kinds and moods of music. A turn of the button brings classical compositions played by famous symphony ensembles, popular music by name orchestras, arias by famous singers, crooning melodies for those who prefer them and even the cowboy ditties or hillbillies if you like them.

But how about teaching the child to make his own music. How about providing the child with the means of joining music groups in songs or instrumental music. It is a priceless gift the enjoyment of which can never be measured.

To give the child this musical education is to let him start in to learn to play an instrument of some kind, to learn to sing. He acquires that love of music; he absorbs it as a flower absorbs the sunshine.

Music hath charms for the young as well as for the older generation. You just can't start too early to translate the hope that your child will love music, into action.

SHORT STORY

The Man For The Part

By STEPHEN CORBETT

I KNEW the moment that I saw him that he was the type. Just the man for the part of Steve the old hillbilly in the second act.

As he trudged the street toward me I noted with satisfaction his matted grey whiskers, long, untrimmed hair, and the look of defiant misery in his eyes. He was the part to the life.

The part had given me considerable difficulty in filling. You see the whole plot revolves around this Steve although he appears but a few minutes in the second act. Steve must be a very real person or the point of the play is lost. I'd turned down dozens of applicants, even Tommy Kingston, the best character man of them all. "I hated to refuse Kingston, on account of past associations. Besides he needed the work. But this last bit of casting was very important to the success of what I believed to be a sure-fire hit. Kingston had argued that the judicious use of make-up would supply me with a Steve that even the author would recognize. But I'd told him I was too old a hand not to know the limitations of grease paint. My man must be true to life.

3-Minute Fiction

I was sure I'd found him. When the old man was a few paces from me I said: "Pardon me, but would you like to earn some money?" He stopped and stared at me in amazement. For a moment he couldn't speak, then words tumbled from his lips in desperate, guttural tones.

"Yes," he said, "I want money. Work, any kind of work so long as it is honest! I'm strong, sir. I do not tire easily and if there—"

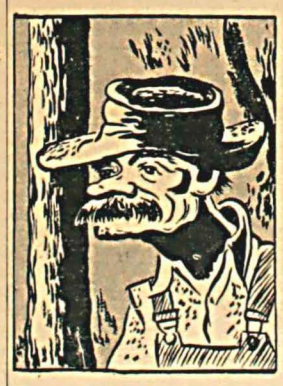
"This will require no muscular exertion," I interrupted. "I want you for a play I'm producing."

"A play?" he repeated, puzzled.

"I believe you're just the man for one of the parts. My office is nearby. If you'll come with me I'll try you out."

He seemed nervous when we entered my office. I suppose his realization that the hopeless search for work might be over made him tremble that way. Reaction, psychologists term it. When he was seated in the big arm chair opposite my desk I gave him a drink, a rare concession. He gulped it down.

I THUMBED through the script and showed him the part he was to read. I'd expected to hear him go through it once, then to show him how to put more into it. But I found myself on the edge of my chair watching him intently. The man was living Steve, getting the utmost out of every phrase, giving each word its proper value.



He was just the type for the part of the old hillbilly.

He finished reading and turned to me anxiously: "Did I—do all right?"

"All right? Man you were perfect. The part is yours," and I meant it.

The occasion called for a celebration. After weeks of searching hotels, park benches and flop houses I'd found Steve. We drank to his success.

There were contract forms handy on my desk. I filled in a few spaces till I came to "salary." "The part pays $100 a week," I told him. "Please sign here."

He hesitated. Was this old fellow, half-starved, jobless, going to be difficult? He said, "It is this way. This acting I do better than anyone else?"

I nodded impatiently.

"Then should I not get more than you would ordinarily pay?"

I was getting sore even though there was a kind of logic to his argument. "Good heavens, man, this is just a bit part. A hundred dollars is high pay for such."

He remained obstinate. Maintaining that an artist such as he should receive more than a lesser person. I regretted now the brandy I'd given him. Taken on an empty stomach it had undoubtedly gone to his head. He agreed to accept $150. He signed and it occurred to me for the first time that I didn't know his name. I picked up his contract. Then I reached for the brandy bottle. I really needed it this time for the signature written in a familiar, round hand was "Thomas Kingston."

LET'S DISCUSS IT

by Mrs. Agnes Whitlock

One of the most active organizations in the Lemon Grove community today is the P. T. A. They are always trying to improve conditions for the school and pupils. During the previous year, through various activities, they have accomplished many beneficial things.

Last year Ninth District P.T.A. contributed shoes and milk for distribution to needy and undernourished children of the school.

Material furnished by this district was made into dresses by members of the local P. T. A. On Christmas and New Year's food and clothing were given to three families, making a total of twenty-five people taken care of at that time.

They bought attractive uniforms for the band. They also have a campship fund with which they help send children to summer camp. These last two projects were carried on with the aid of other organizations. The P. T. A. would like to do more, but to do so, we the parents have to help.

The anticipated Carnival this year is something none of us should miss. It is an affair for children to really enjoy, from baby sister to big brother. I know that the parents enjoyed last years affair. So let's all be there this year.

Parents who have never before attended one of the varied meetings are pleasantly surprised to find them entertaining as well as informative. This statement includes fathers as well as mothers.

In problems brought forth for discussion, your opinion may help bring about a much needed solution. Don't keep your grievances to yourself. Let them be aired at a meeting.

If you aren't there to help plan future activities, you haven't the right to complain about what is or is not done.

Not only will you understand more about the school, but you'll discover things about your own child. Talking to Johnny's teacher may prove to be helpful in ironing out difficulties you or the teacher may be having. Most children act differently away from home and parents. Just how differently may surprise you!

P. T. A. works not only for a better understanding between parent and teacher, but between parent and child.

Get in the habit of attending regluar P. T. A. meetings. You will get to know the parents of your children's playmates. Haven't you often wondered who the parents of these playmates are, what they are like?

If you know more about your child's interests and activities, he will be apt to share his many confidences with you. Parents should be a guiding influence. Most of us are only to glad to put forth the little effort necessary to warrant this trust.

If you are interested in these things, join the P. T. A.

TEACHERS CONFERENCE HELD SATURDAY

Several Sunday School teachers and workers of the Community Congregational Church met Saturday evening for a conference. Rev. George Jenkins of Los Angeles, in charge of educational work in the Congregational Conference, was there to give advice and aid to all departments of the Church School.

Among those present were Rev. and Mrs. Dan Apra, Miss Nancy Vogler, Mrs. Genevieve Porter, Mrs. L. D. Lee, Mrs. Walter Denlinger, Mrs. A. R. Rettke, Mrs. Helen Van Dusen, Mrs. L. F. Herder, Rev. Earl Lindsley, Theo Roberts, Art Thomas and Bob Eckhart.

JAMES I. MC FEELY PASSES AWAY

Friends of James Ira McFeely will be saddened to know that he passed away in a local hospital Friday, October 1. He was born in Colport, Pennsylvania, and was foreman of a coal mine. After his retirement he moved to Lemon Grove, where he lived at 2928 New Jersey Street.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary E. McFeeley; three daughters, Mrs. H. W. Ward of Mineral Ridge, Ohio; Mrs. Elmer Funkhouser, of Lexington, Massachusetts, and Mrs. G. A. Crow of Westerville, Ohio; and two sons, James L. McFeeley of Johnstown, Pennsylvania, and Robert McFeeley of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. McFeeley were members of the Congregational Church, and he will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

Full Information On Coordinating Councils Given

Kenneth Beam of the County Co-ordinating Council has forwarded copies of the complete outline of duties and programs of co-ordinating councils, plus names of the entire staff of San Diego's County Council, to the chairman of the proposed local group.

Every organization in the Lemon Grove School District and every Church will receive a copy with a request that it be read in its entirety to the next meeting and have the members decide if they wish to have a representative attend meetings of the group.

The first meeting of the proposed group had an attendance of 19 persons. The second meeting saw 34 persons present. Beame feels that this shows a healthy attitude on the part of the people of Lemon Grove, and he believes the community can be benefitted in many ways by forming this Council.

It is hoped that any group, regardless of size, will contact the secretary, Mrs. L. F. Herder, or the chairman, Mr. L. McGee, if they have failed to receive a copy of this outline.

The following are some salient points in the outline:

The purpose of Coordinating Council Meetings is to enable each representative of public, private, civic, religious and youth organizations to secure better understanding; to enable members of the council to share their views.

It is to provide an opportunity for council members to study together the needs of the community and of youth and to encourage the development of concrete plans for meeting these needs and to take definite action.

The Council's chief concern is the welfare of the children, youth and home life in the community. One of its objectives is the prevention of juvenile delinquency through better community planning for children and youth.

Meetings, studies, committees, and activities should all be directed toward that end.

The Council should not permit itself to be side tracked from its major responsibility.

There are over 3000 coordinating councils in California. The California Youth Authority maintains a staff of field workers who are available to assist in the organizzation of coordinating councils in those counties that do not employ such workers. Directors of coordinating councils are employed in San Francisco, Los Angeles, and San Diego Counties.

There are 8 councils in the city of San Diego and 8 in county territory, making a total of 16 coordinating councils in this county. There are 6 other coordinating and planning bodies doing somewhat the same work but under different names. Other councils are in the process of formation.

Members of the Board of Directors include Dr. Frank M. Lowe, James Don Keller, District Attorney, San Diego County; Kenneth S. Beam, Phillip Ashworth, chairman, Juvenile Protection Committee; DeGraff Austin, chairman, County Board of Supervisors; Dr. John S. Carroll, Superintendent of Schools, San Diego County; Charles C. Dail, member of City Council.

Elmer Jansen, Chief of Police, San Diego City; Julius H. Rainwater, Director, Department of Public Welfare, County; Hon. Joseph Shell, Judge, Juvenile Court, San Diego County, and many other prominent citizens.

LOOKIN' AT THE GROVE

by John A. Van Gilse

"Plenty of fun for all, young and old alike," is the excellent motto that is being placed on the plans for Lemon Grove's first annual Community Picnic scheduled for a week from Sunday, October 24, at Eucalyptus Park.

The event will be sponsored by the Business Men's Association, the Business Women's League, and the local Lion's Club and will be the Grove's first combined effort at installing a real old-time community spirit. The sponsors say, "Everyone is welcome, come one, come all."

Highlighting the picnic will be a baseball game between the Lions Club and the Business Men's organization. The ball game is the result of a challenge issued to the Lions Club by the Business Men some two months ago. The picnic and ball game had been scheduled for midsummer, but had to be postponed until later due to Polio.

The ball game will take on the complexion of comedy and farce as substitutes take over, as Mrs. Burt Snyder, president of the Business Women's League, sends in her array of "ball Hawks" to substitute for the "tired business men" . . . It is rumored that the Business Women's Leage have uniforms complete with colored sox and all to dazzle the picnic throng. . .

Other scheduled events include a horse shoe pitching contest, a tug of war, three legged races, sack races, musical chair relays and a lot of events to please the small fry present. In other words it is the desire of the committee to have everyone participate in the athletic events. .

The three organizations will provide free coffee and pink lemon ade for the gathered throng. Each family is expected to provide a picnic lunch for themselves. . . .

One of the big high-lights of the day will be a Chinese Auction featuring Lemon Grove's own professional auctioneer, "Smilin' " John Clanton. Clanton will auction a myriad of items via the Chinese auction method. Proceeds will be placed in a kiddies community party fund to be used for entertainment of Lemon Grove Children at a later date.

Now, the thing for each and every one of you Lemon Grovers to do is to place a big red circle around the date, Sunday, October 24, and get ready for a full day of good old time fun.

FARM BUREAU HOLDS COUNTY MEETING

San Diego County citizens today were invited to attend a special meeting arranged by the San Diego County Farm Bureau Home Department for October 20, in San Diego, at which the important measures appearing on the November2 ballott will be discussed.

Leading the discussion, according to Mrs. Mozier, will be two representatives of the California Farm Bureau Federation, Lawrence Downen, area Representative California Farm Bureau and Leslie Waight, area representative, California Farm Bureau.

SAGELYS BUILDING NEW HOME

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. George Sagely will be interested to learn that they have bought a lot in Van Buren, Arkansas, and are having a two-story brick house built there, with a two-car garage. They like their new location very much, but friends believe they will change their minds after a few snows arrive.

Lemon Grove Review

Published every Thursday at 7812 Broadway, Lemon Grove, California by Brent W. and Jean Payne, Editors and Owners

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To The Editor, Lemon Grove Review:
Dear Sir:

Can you do something about the problem facing many people and businesses in our town? I mean the problem of policing the area. Our Deputy Sheriff is on duty 24 hours daily but his regular duty hours seem to be from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Actually we don't need an officer on duty during those hours. If he is to have a regular eight-hour shift, it should be from 6:00 p.m. until 2:00 a.m. This is the time when unrestricted juveniles are on the loose. This is the time during which damage is being done. This is the time durng which young hot-rod enthusiasts are endangering life and limb (their own as well as others).

Please publish this letter and lets see if we can get some action and control these youngsters whose parents are unable or unwilling to supervise. Thanks and I think your paper is a credit to the Grove. I, and many of my neighbors look forward to receiving it each week, and read it from cover to cover.

Sincerely yours,
Indignant

No Punches Being Pulled on 'Featherbedding'

Featherbedding practices were attacked from numerous quarters during the past week by organizations and individuals supporting passage of Proposition 3 — the anit-featherbedding initiative — at the November General Election.

In Sacramento, Sam Cohn, former deputy director of the State Department of Public Instruction, charged that featherbedding "prevents many California communities from carrying out school building programs vitally needed to relieve over-crowded classrooms."

Cohn declared that school construction projects, both on the State and local levels, are being seriously retarded by the unwillingness of taxpayers to authorize the towering expenditures necessary, and attributed a substantial part of these high costs to featherbedding.

The California Retailers Association urged a "Yes" vote on Proposition 3 in a statement by Vincent Kennedy, managing director. He said: "While employers in the first instance sign the paychecks for featherbedding, make-work production costs are passed on to the consumer and finally become a levy against the public's pocketbook."

GUESTS AT COUNCIL MEETING

Mr. and Mrs. Louis McGee and Mrs. Burton Snyder were guests at a meeting of the Coordinating Council in Spring Valley, Tuesday evening.

As Lemon Grove organizations are interested in starting a similar organization in this community, they were most interested in seeing such a council functioning in a neighboring community.

The trio were very favorably impressed with the workings of the council. Everything progressed smoothly, and each organization freely expressed its opinions, yet all were interested in each organization and all discussions were harmonious.

Forward Club Held Regular Meeting October 8

The Lemon Grove Forward Club met Friday, October 8, at 2:00 p. m. in their club house, following a meeting of the board. Mrs. Ted Haaf rpesided.

Mrs. Randolph Morse, chairman of the Needlework Guild, brought a display of several garments, some made and some bought for the Guild. The club has until Sovember 9 to collect garments for the Guild.

A. F. Sonka donated soil to fill in around the kitchen door, and also furnished material for a hand rail.

It was announced that the Senior club members are entertaining the Juniors with a party Tuesday, October 19, at 8:00 p. m.

Several guests were present, including Mrs. Al Rovang, and Mrs. Al Sharp from the Women's Club at Vista La Mesa. Also Mrs. Foty and Mrs. Williamson of Monterey Heights and Mrs. Lackey.

Mrs. Roy E. Churchill was introduced and spoke briefly on the coming election of a member to the County Board of Education.

President, Mrs. Ted Haaf, brought up the subject of the expense of the new sewer to the organization, and discussed its installation. Mrs. Haaf appointed a committee to investigate the sewer payments thoroughly and report at the next meeting. Mrs. Donovan, Mrs. Richardson and Mrs. Sonka were chosen.

A committee was appointed to go over the by-laws and revise or rewrite them to bring them up to date. It included Mrs. A. P. Schnell, Mrs. L. D. Newton and Mrs. Fred Johnson.

Mrs. C. F. Baxter, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Simon Healy, who made a most interesting talk on "Narcotics."

She told of all the different types of narcotics used: opium, from the poppy pod; coca, from a leaf of a shrub in Java, and Indian Hemp or Marijuana, which she said is the most dangerous. She told that it can cause insanity, and one who uses it gets an enlarged ego, loses his sense of balance, and becomes easy prey for criminals.

Mrs. Healy said that it is up to Women's Clubs to clean up places where the drugs are used.

Hostesses serving tea to the group were Mrs. William Donovan, Mrs. L. F. Herder and Miss Mina Durkee.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Ratcliff of Oceanside, stopped for a brief visit Friday with the former's sister, Mrs. L. F. Herder.

DAY CAMP STAFF HELD PARTY

All the staff who had charge of the Day Camp last summer for both Brownies and Girl Scouts, held a party Wednesday evening. Mrs. L. O. McIntosh was director of the Girl Scout Intermediate Day Camp, and she opened the meeting to give her report of the camp, and to thank all the personnel, who helped to make it a success.

Mrs. Thelma Lewis, director of the Brownie Day Camp did likewise for the Brownie personnel. Each director was presented with a gift.

Slides of the Day Camp in color were shown by Mr. Spencer Bunch, who also showed slides of a recent trip to Colorado, scenes from Pike's Peak, Denver, and Grand Mesa.

Another social event followed—a pink and blue shower for Mrs. A. C. Wright of Spring Valley, who was very happily surprised.

The entertainment was especially interesting, including a Fashion Show of baby hats made by the guests, of paper plates, napkins, and pink and blue crepe streamers. Guests present included Miss. Rhea Hards, Mrs. Guy Winton, Mrs. Frank Greenlee, Mrs. Thelma Lewis, Mrs. E. R. Mellon, Mrs. Joy Pratt, Mrs. Vena Moore, Mrs. Peggy Stove, Mrs. Iva Bunch, Mrs. Jean Gregory, Mrs. Ida Bjork, Mrs. Grace Graham, Mrs. Frances Morgan, Mrs. Eve Pickens, Mrs. A. C. Wright, Mrs. L. O. McIntosh, Mrs. Jean Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Bunch.

RECIPE FOR HAPPINESS

Stir together equal parts of honest labor, courage and common sense. Put in plenty of pep and determination. Flavor with tolerance and charity. Add an abundance of the milk of human kindness and true forgiveness and season liberally with optimism.

Stir this constantly over a hot fire of ambition, keeping it boiling with enthusiasm. Be sure to skim off any discontent, pessimism, selfishness and unfairness that may come to the surface or a hard crust may form that will spoil everything.

Serve daily in generous portions to yourself and fellow-men and you will enjoy a long and happy life.

Listen, Parents

by L. E. McGee

The column this week has promised to deal with the problem of raising a child with three qualifications, 1, to make him a happy adult; 2, to make him like people; and 3, to make people like him.

A happy adult is one who enjoys his work, is happy with his marital status, and contented with his home and financial condition. To enjoy his work, a person must have work which he likes doing, and that rarely happens by accident. If you spend a reasonable amount of time with your child, you will soon know what interests him and what he has natural talents for. Encourage his hobbies and guide (don't force) him through channels of education and experience which will prepare him for that type of profession or trade.

To create a happy marital state, he must have lots of friends; he should have his friends at his home, and should visit their homes. When he attends church, school and social affairs, he will meet people; he will have an opportunity to see many people under different conditions, and be able to judge character better than the child who is kept at home too much and the child who isn't allowed to have company in his home.

Also, of course, he should see marriage work successfully in his own home every day. A spirit of cooperation between his own parents, love, enjoyment in each others' companionship, and a sense of fairness between them will give your child a true picture of what a happy marriage is.

Then too, he must be taught to give and take with his family and friends, and to accept minor disappointments gracefully. These experiences will certainly help your child to enjoy marriage.

To like people and to be liked by them, can be ingrained into the child with the above ideas also. Show me an adult who is fair, co-operative and willing to do good for others, and I'll show you a person who is well-liked and who, in turn, likes people.

Teach Junior to do things for others. There is no other one thing which will make him happier as a child and as an adult. You know from your own experience, the satisfaction you receive from a good deed. Allow your child to enjoy that experience often.

The Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts teach as part of their program, that each member must do at least one "good turn" for someone every day. Boy Scouts are supposed to wear their badges upside-down each morning until they have done their good deed. Of course, they don't stop at doing just one.

Polite, courteous children are well liked. However, courtesy should be taught early and at every opportunity. When I had my Scout Troop, I taught my boys that the most important words they could use were. 'Thank you', 'Please', and 'Excuse me.' Just words? Yes, but when a youngster uses them repeatedly, the habit of courtesy grows until it becomes a part of him.

I object to the tactics I have observed in some homes of service men, where the child is under service training and must almost salute as he says 'Yes-sir' and 'No-sir'. That routine does not encourage companionship and discussion as much as it does blind obedience which is desirable in a soldier, but not in a child. Soldiers must act as a machine or a unit, but we don't want our children to come out of a machine; we want them to be individuals.

Thanks again for your letters. I have space to answer only two on this page. The others will be answered by mail.

Mrs. S. I agree with you heartily that it is unhealthy for a group of fourteen-year-olds to associate regularly with a 19-year-old. Their likes and habits cannot be alike and the younger boys will acquire habits of smoking and other undesirable traits at an earlier date. Discourage it by all means, or even forbid it entirely.

Mrs. W. T.: Even though your boy is away from home later than you like, I would recommend Boy Scouts just the same. Let him understand that attending Scout meetings is a special privilege and that you allow the unusual late hour only because you know that Scouting is an important organization that has trained such men as Colin Kelly, Joe Di Maggio, Ted Williams and others. Also, if he isn't home by 9:45, I'd talk with his Scoutmaster and find out what time you can reasonably expect him.

GUESTS AT BRIDGE

GIRL SCOUTS AND BROWNIE NEWS

Mrs. John Kish, leader of the fifth and sixth grade Girl Scouts, will hold meetings each Tuesday morning at 10:30 in the Congregational Church. These girls have started making leather pins. They bring a sack lunch each time, and go on to school at 12:30. All fifth and sixth grade girls who go to school afternoons are invited.

Mrs. C. F. Baxter's troop of Brownies meet at the Forward Club each Wednesday morning at 10:30. They are planning a joint Hallowe'en party with Mrs. Joe Beyer's troop on October 23, to be held at Mrs. Baxter's home, 2925 S. Buena Vista St. They also invite girls to join who go to school afternoons.

Mrs. F. N. Lewis is leader for the sixth and seventh grade girls in the Monterey Heights area. On Tuesday at 10:00a. m. the seventh grade girls meet at her home at 7933 Lansing Drive. Tuesday afternoon the sixth grade girls meet from 2:00 to 4:00 at her home. The Monterey Heights Civic Organization is sponsoring these girls.

The fifth grade girls meet Wednesday from 2:00 to 4:00 at 1594 Drexel Drive with their leader, Mrs. A. A. Vandervoss. She is also co-leader for Mrs. Lewis. They also invite girls in the Monterey Heights area to join.

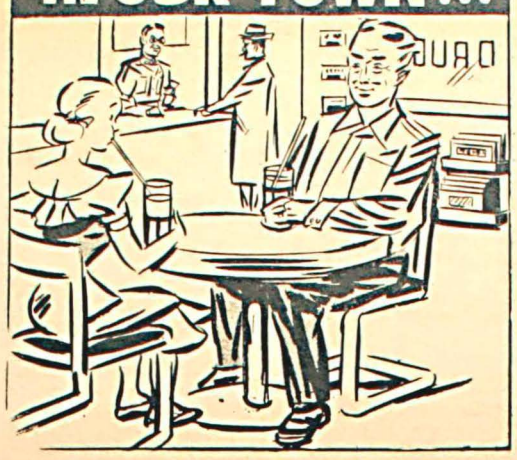
Mrs. L. O. McIntosh and her co-leader Mrs. Iva Bunch, took their fifth and sixth grade Vista La Mesa group to the Goodwill Industries in San Diego last Friday, to see the Doll Exhibit.

There were 2,000 rare, old and foreign dolls in the exhibit, ranging from the finest china, to rag dolls. Over 40 collectors dolls were loaned for the occasion. One doll was made during the Gold Rush days of '49.

A little later the girls will work on their "International Friendship" badge, and this trip will tie in with the project.

It was erroneously reported last week that the fifth and sixth grades of Girl Scouts meet at the Congregational Church each week. Instead, they meet at the Vista La Mesa Christian Church, and the area extends as far as Harris Street.

IN OUR TOWN ...



. . . . BUSINESS AND PLEASURE DO MIX

The old saying that business and pleasure don't mix does not apply to the people in Our Town. When you're doing business with merchants that are your neighbors, it's actually a pleasure. That's the attitude of most everyone here. We all know that what helps Our Town helps each individual. It's this friendly spirit that makes mixing business and pleasure possible; and one of the many reasons why Our Town is a good place in which to live, trade, and do business.

REGULAR MEETING HELD BY BUSINESS WOMENS LEAGUE

Twenty women of the Business Women's League gathered at the Community Congregational Church dining room Thursday noon for their regular luncheon. and business meeting.

An invitation was extended by the Business Men's Club to join their October 12 meeting to hear their guest speaker.

Mrs. Henry Etonsohn, chairman of welfare, announced receipt of a check for $25.00 from the Ward and MacGuire Lumber Company. This will be added to the thirty dollars received from City Chevrolet for visiting their plant and will be used for welfare. Money left over from the picnic at Eucalyptus Park was also added to this fund.

Mrs. John Hill reported that two UNESCO packages were ready to go.

Mrs. C. F. Baxter disclosed that the Forward Club wished to sponsor another contest on "Outdoor Home Decoration" at Christmas time, and needed money for extra prizes this year. The League voted $10.00 to the project.

A brief report on the new Fire District plans at the last Chamber of Commerce meeting was given.

It was also suggested that if the County Federation Dinner Dance is not given, a Hallowe'en dance might be planned.

Mrs. Marie Somsen, mother of Mrs. J. A. Van Gilse, then gave a very interesting talk about her recent trip to Switzerland. During and after her talk she showed pictures of different places she had visited. She also told of the separate dialects and showed scarfs with beautiful colored crests.

At the close of her speech, coffee was again served, accompanied by lovely pastries which Mrs. Somsen and Mrs. Van Gilse had made especially for the occasion.

The pastries were served by Miss Karen Van Gilse who was dressed in a representative Swiss costume made by her mother.

The next Business Women's Luncheon will be held October 21 in the Congregational Church.

TEACHING THE CHILD

Children learn to keep clean and like to keep clean, by the constant reminder of their parents. When a child is told every day to take his bath, clean his teeth, and change his underwear and socks, he grows to like this cleanliness and feels uncomfortable unless these rules are adhered to when he grows up.

It means a few years of constand reminding, but will repay the parents when the child of his own accord does these necessary things that work for good health and fine appearance.

Baptist Church Employs Unique Plan to Finance Building Program

One of the most unusual church financing plans ever to be launched in southern California, is under way at the First Baptist Church in Lemon Grove.

Bonds valued at $30,000 are being issued for the first unit of the building program. The church got underway selling the bonds two weeks ago, and today approximately $5,000 worth have sold. The bonds pay 5 percent interest and mature in from 1 to 14 years. They are issued in denominations of $50 to $500. The interest and principal are payable at the Security Trust and Savings Bank in San Diego.

The uniqueness of this plan is that no one is asked to give anything, but the church will pay 5 percent interest on money loaned to it for a little while.

This is called the Broadway Plan and has been passed on by the Cooperative Commissioners of California, and the church's permit has been issued to sell these securities as provided by State law of Calif.

The building is now underway for the first unit, which will be the chapel.

Junior Patrol Guests of Grove Theatre

Through the courtesy of John Van Gilse of the Grove Theatre, eight members of the Junior Patrol of the Lemon Grove School saw "Robin Hood" and "Woman Chases Man" on Saturday afternoon.

Van Gilse gave more than 300 free passes to Junior Patrol members last year and has extended the same courtesy this year.

Those attending last Saturday were Dean Deaton, Cedric Jordan, Lyn Warden, Larry Coy, Walter Capron, Jim Dorman, Allen Oldfield and Stuart Harvey.

Another New Business For Lemon Grove

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Elkins have opened a new business called the Lemon Grove Ranch Market, at 7526 Broadway. They will carry fresh fruits and vegetables, and possibly add a few staples later. They plan to buy direct from ranchers as far as possible.

SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT ATTENDS CONVENTION

BOYS DAMAGE VFW HALL

The VFW Hall on Imperial Avenue was broken into last week and windows were broken. Sugar, salt and soap were opened and scattered over the place. Counters were hacked and damage to the extent of $50 was suffered.

The mischief seemed to be the work of boys, possibly 9 to 10 years of age. The VFW organization is offering a reward of $10 for apprehension and conviction of the culprits.

Not long ago the Forward Club House was entered and damaged also.

Home Extension Class To Meet Wednesday

The Lemon Grove Home Extension Class will meet Wednesday, October 20, at 10:30 a. m. in the Vista La Mesa Christian Church. The lesson is on lunches, and particularly nutritious packed lunches, though they are easily adapted for home or outdoors.

Someone will care for the small children so their mothers may get as much as possible from the meeting. The Lemon Grove group is extending a welcome to all women of the community to attend.

Lunch will be prepared and served. Anyone wishing to know more about each month's varied lesson, please call Mrs. Campbell at H6-5456 or Mrs. Sanchez at H6-5333.

THE CHAMP ON THE STAMP

"Which came first, the chicken or the egg?" Robert Adolph, Assistant Farm Advisor, points out that the poultry industry with all its advanced research and scientific practices hasn't yet found the answer to that one.

In fact, if you will look closely at the new three cent stamp issued in honor of the centennial of the American Poultry Industry, you'll see the chicken still puzzling over that question. Or perhaps his bewilderment is over the fact that the egg in the lower right hand corner is marked '3c". Any housewife can tell you its been many a day since she's seen a three-cent egg.

The new stamp commemorates the 100th anniversary of a poultry exposition held in Boston. Adolph, Extension Specialist in Poultry for San Diego County, identifies the bird as a Brahma. This breed is now very rare. . . . particularly in California. However, the selection of the Brahma to adorn the stamp was appropriate enough. . . it was one of the first breeds to be used by the Poultry Association in its experiments.

The poultry industry has a right to be proud of this recognition it has received from Congress and the Post Office Department.
